

Do not enact this. States should be able regulate the no-call list without interference from the Federal government. Leave the no-call list rules alone.